

E-safety Evening

Thursday 10th March 2016

Why?

- Would you let a child learn to light a fire by giving them a box of matches and letting them go to their room to figure it out?

- No-one else on the internet is there to look out for your child

The importance of dialogue - Dos

- Have a family meeting to set boundaries
- Check regularly
- Keep passwords
- Install parental controls
- Use television as an opportunity to start discussion
- Be well informed www.thinkuknow.co.uk

The importance of dialogue – Don'ts

- Don't snoop
- Don't just check the settings – check the profile too
- Don't judge if things go wrong

Parental controls

- Internet comes in two varieties
- Wifi/Cable
- 3G/4G

- You need to restrict both

- Setting up a phone?

Get stuck in

- The only way you can restrict things is to go online or onto the device and do it yourself
- It can't break
- Locked out?
- Don't leave your child to it – get them to tell you
- Pen, paper and the phone

The internet is useful
